ALMA MATER

In the hills among the pine trees,
Reared against the skies;
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.
May it ever be our watchword,
"Conquer and prevail."
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Edneyville, All Hail!

Edition of

The Whispering Pines

Edneyville School

EDNEYVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Foreword

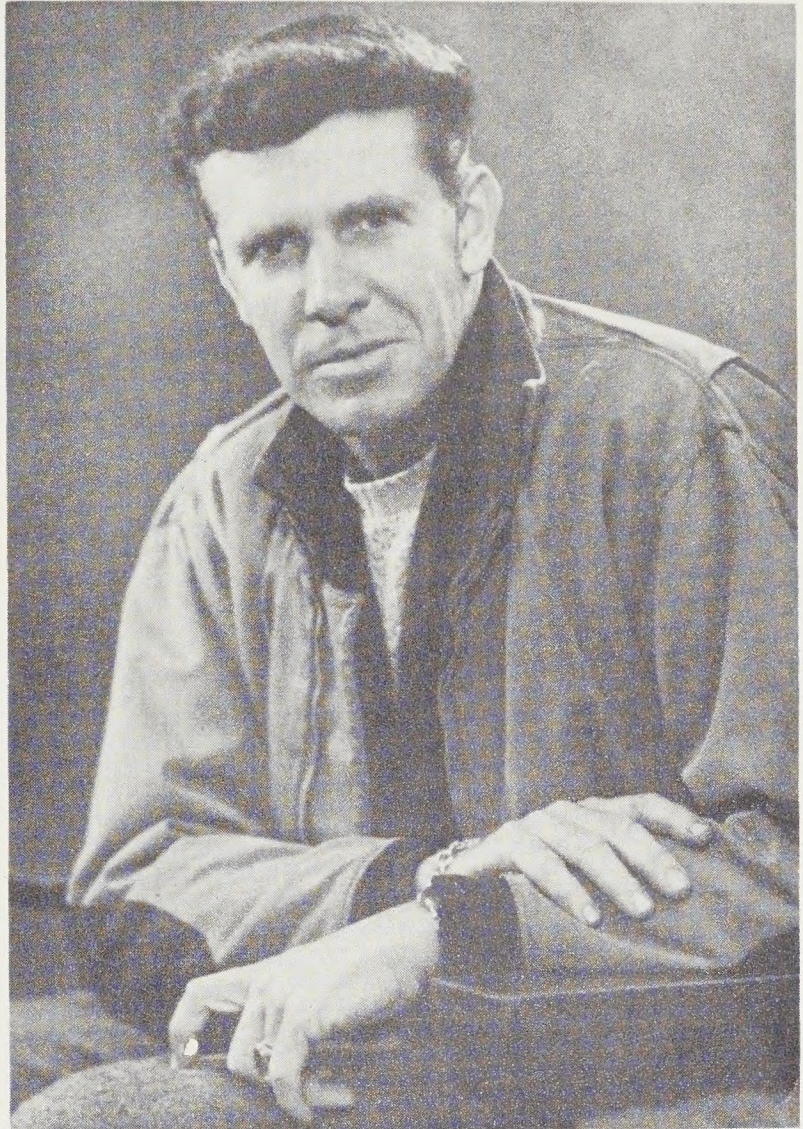

In this yearbook we have made a sincere attempt to bring you some of the highlights that have made this year at Edneyville High a real picture of life.

We hope you enjoy this representation of our work and play, our good times and trying times, our fellowship and faithfulness.

Tomorrow may this edition of the Whispering Pines of 1952 help keep aglow the many bright memories of today's cherished lessons of youthful strength and courage.

Dedication

TO

MR. MINOR P. WILSON

a loyal teacher and friend, who has given several years of service to our school, who has gained the admiration and respect of the students and teachers by his cooperation in the many school activities, who is a man with progressive methods in teaching and influencing the young people of Edneyville, who is abundantly dedicated to our boys; to one whose genuine concern for our best gives us encouragement and faith in our abilities, we, the seniors of the class of 1952, do dedicate this, the fifth edition of

Senior Class History

We entered Edneyville High School in 1947 as enthusiastic, eager, and ambitious students, we knew nothing of what high school life would be like. As we floundered on waves of ignorance and uncertainty, our sponsors, Miss Elizabeth Cody and Mr. Gaylord Davis, steered us into their docks where we set our first anchor. It was in this beginning that we found our light was very dim and uncertain.

Then in the fall of the following year we entered school life as silly sophomores. We were then more interested in school because of the many clubs and athletic games. We joined in everything to make us a well rounded class. About twelve sophomores were invited to join the Honorary Beta Club.

Then in 1950, we entered school as jolly juniors. We could now see what progress we had made and that our light was really shining. Under the direction of Miss Mattie Sue French we gave our Junior Play, The All American Family, which was a great success, even though we had to give it in the gymnasium because there wasn't an auditorium at Edneyville. In spite of the crowded situation we found a deeper sense of responsibility and began to realize the meaning of real teamwork in all your activities.

After many days of planning and preparing we gave the Junior-Senior banquet on April 27th with a Dixie-Negro theme. Miss Elizabeth Cody and Mr. Odell Griffin, our sponsors, helped us in making this an event we all shall remember.

Then we entered our last year of our long journey, as dignified seniors, in the newest, most modern building in Henderson County. As we gathered in our classroom, we found that we had lost quite a few members. Then we began to realize how near we were to the end of our school journey. Mrs. Elaine M. Burroughs was our sponsor.

With our deepest appreciation we thank you, Mr. Nesbitt and the faculty, for your patience, kindness, and helpfulness all during our school life. As we complete our tasks, we leave Edneyville High School to find our position in life. Maybe some will continue their education while others will make other plans. But as we leave with pride we shall remember. "Not for just an hour, not for just a day, not for just a year, but always," our days at Edneyville.

The Last Will and Testament

We the members of the Senior Class of Edneyville High School having completed our journey through the land of knowledge and having reached the goal in full possession of sound minds, find that during our high school career we have accumulated a considerable estate, common sense, experience, and a vast store of earthly treasures. In all due respect and thoughtfulness toward our heirs and friends, we do make, declare, and publish this our last will and testament; hereby revoking and making void all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

To our mothers and fathers we will our most sincere appreciation and deepest love for their untiring efforts which otherwise would have been impossible for us to attend school.

To Mr. Nesbitt, our principal, and Mrs. Burroughs, our sponsor, we leave our appreciation for the interest they have shown to each individual during our school life.

To Miss Elizabeth Cody who has been the girls' home room teacher for the past three years, each has reserved a special place in her heart.

Maxine Brown wills her quiet ways and ability to study to Clyde Hoots.

Frances Burch wills her ability to chew gum to Peggy Ledbetter.

Mary Louise Staton leaves her baby like ways to Doris Gilliam.

G. C. Lyons leaves his ability to "fool" the teachers to Jimmy Wilson, hoping he can do a great deal better.

Clorena Nix leaves her ability as a secretary to Virginia Merrell.

Nell Freeman and Tom Pryor leave their title as most athletic to Grace Maxwell and Jimmy Rickman.

Calvin Dalton leaves his ability to blush to Horace Justus and Annette Williams.

Billy Greer leaves his neatness to Johnny Lee Freeman.

Steve Thompson wills his good looks to Preston Garren.

Earline Corn leaves her title as most popular to Frances Corn.

Vivian Nix and Edith Laughter Corn leave their ability to dance to Betty Roberts and Wanda Moffitt.

Ralph Walker and Earl Stepp will their ability to play hooky and get by to Grady Corn, Billy Conner, and R. V. Engle.

David Phipps leaves his title as "Best All Around" to Edith Nix, hoping she will take it with great honor.

Grady Martin leaves his mischievous ways to Vernon Jones and Earl Peeler.

L'Neve Saunders leaves her letter writing to Beulah Lee Corn, hoping she will accomplish more.

Gene Hudson leaves his red curls to Virginia Jones.

Joan Gebe wills her love for books to Cassie Williams and Flora Jones.

Dot McMinn wills her beautiful dark complexion to Anna Gebe.

Betty Lou Cox wills her position in the Beta Club to Shirley Smith.

Mary Sullivan wills her pretty hair to Donna Hedstrom.

Mary Ann Ledbetter leaves her high temper to Frances Thompson and Shelia Ward.

Glover Cagle leaves his lady like hands to Gene Sanders and Marion Nix, hoping they will remember to use "Avon" hand cream.

Eli Dalton leaves his blue corduroy Ag. coat to Phyllis Laughter and Joyce Hollingsworth, hoping they will cherish it very much.

Don Garren leaves his "gift of gab" to Betty Jo Ramsey.

Keith Garren wills his "boots" to Charles Bradley, hoping he will keep them well-shined.

Vance Hoots wills his politeness to Floyd Pryor.

Georgia Jones leaves her cheerful, jolly manner to Hazel Griffin.

Marie Laughter leaves her white sweater to Evelyn McAbee. Keep it just as white as Marie has, Evelyn.

Junior Justice wills his "No Mam" to Mrs. Burroughs in English class to Kenneth Blackwell and Frank James hoping they will remember the "Mam."

Ann Laughter leaves her friendly ways to Annie Lee McAbee.

Phyllis Rogers leaves her pretty clothes to Mabel Nix.

More Freedom More Responsibility

The propaganda that is being fired at people both young and old is at times near paralyzing. The distraction is too much for many seasoned adults; it is only the strong young people who will be able to weather the storm and steer a steady course. One young person put it well when she said, "I don't know what to believe." She expressed the thinking of many sincere young people. There is a lot of talking and guessing and so many self-appointed experts with a new plan and who think that they have the answer.

It is to be hoped that school has, if nothing more, taught each of you graduates to stop and evaluate before accepting new theories and ideologies, or discarding proven practices. We hope that each one will accept his or her proper share of moral responsibility for the success of home, church, school, state, nation; so that out of what may seem world chaos, and what is abnormal condition may come a return to fundamentals of sound thinking, practical living, honesty of opinion, understanding of others' problems, and spiritual unselfishness.

Someone has well said,
"We ask for strength and God gives us difficulties which make us strong.

We pray for wisdom and God sends us problems the solution of which develops wisdom.

We plead for courage and God gives us dangers to overcome.

We ask for favors and God gives us opportunities."

With kindest regards, I am,

W. J. Nesbitt
